

Over 60 foreign pilots regularly fly US pax and freight in and out of US airspace safely. Clearly the Age 60 rule is not about safety. Additionally, the 1959 Age 60 Rule dates from an era when women were systematically excluded from commercial aviation. Women age significantly differently from men. Issues of female aging are not addressed by this archaic remnant of a long gone time.